THE VANCE PORTRAIT.

Mr. Busbee of Raleigh Wins in the Contest as to Who Shall Print It.

A Salisbury Special last night to the Charlotte Observer says:

The committee appointed by the last State convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to decide upon the artist who shall paint a portrait of Vance for the North Carolina room of the Confederate Museum at Richmond, met with Mrs. William H. Overman at noon today. There were present Mrs. Theo. F. Morrison, of Asheville, chairman; Mrs. Edwin R. Overman, of Salisbury, secretary; Mrs. Sidney Alderman, of Greensboro; Mrs. Walker, of Spray, and Mrs. J. P. More, of Salisbury. Four members were not in attendance, but were represented by proxy. Applications were read from eight artists, six of them residents of North Carolina. On a vote Mr. Jacques Busbee, of Raleigh, received four votes to two for his nearest competitor and the rest scattering. He was accordingly declared the choice of the committee. Mr. Busbee has done work which marks him as a young artist of great promise. His portraits of Judges Gaston and Taylor in the Supreme Court room at Raleigh have been highly commended. Other work which has given him reputation is his portrait of ex-Chief Justice Jas E. Sheppard, the late Lieutenant W. E. Shipp and others, for the Raleigh Masonic Hall. He is a son of Chas. M. Busbee, Esq.

The portrait will be life size, three-fourths sitting. It will follow, as to the bust, a photograph made by Price, a Washington photographer, a few years before Vance's death. The committee was in doubt as to whether the subject should appear in Confederate uniform, but decided in the negative, preferring to have him represented in his character as a statesman. The portrait is to be finished before October 9th and presented on that date to the annual State convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy, meeting at Charlotte.

Class Reunion.

Several of the members of the graduating class of '81 of the Greensboro Female College, are arranging to have a class re-union at the approaching commencement the latter part of May. Four or five of the old class have been heard from and will be on hand, and others not yet heard from will doubtless be present. Twenty years will have elapsed since the girls were in the school together, and it will be a memorable occasion in their lives to meet together again under the shadow of their alma mater, and it will bring back many fond recollections of their associations there.

$107,000 in Collection Boxes.

New York Sun.

At the conclusion of his sermon on Palm Sunday Dr. Huntington, pastor of Grace church, pointed out that the church was badly in need of more buildings, for which it had the ground on Fourth avenue in the rear of the present structure. Great was his surprise on Easter Sunday, after the usual Sunday offering had been collected, to find that the collection boxes held $107,000. The prompt response to his request was a most pleasant surprise to Dr. Huntington and is said to be the largest amount ever taken in the collection boxes of a church in one day.

Steamboat on the Yadkin.

Winston-Salem, April 11.—A company has been organized to put a steam boat on the Yadkin river, for the purpose of hauling freight and excursion parties to and from the new cotton mill town of Cooleemee. Lots have been laid off for various churches, all of which, the Episcopal, Baptist, Methodist, and Lutheran, contemplate building houses of worship during the coming summer.

GENERAL MILES FOR PRESIDENT

MOVEMENT ON FOOT TO GIVE HIM DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.

Army Officers in His Confidence Say the Plan is on Foot—He Was Neither With the Silver Nor Gold Faction and Would Therefore be a Good Compromise Candidate.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, April 12.—Army officers in the confidence of Lieutenant General Miles say there is a movement on foot to make him a presidential candidate on the democratic ticket in nineteen hundred and four. Miles never declared for either the silver or the gold faction and therefore would be acceptable as a compromise candidate.

Marriage in Mocksville.

The following account of a marriage of a young man well known in Greensboro is taken from the Mocksville correspondence of the Charlotte Observer. Mr. and Mrs. Powell spent last night in the city and left this morning for Florida, going by way of Sanford:

"A beautiful pink and white wedding occurred at the Methodist church here last night, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. J. G. Powell, of Mt. Airy, was married to Miss Minnie Douthit, of this place, Rev. W. L. Sherrill, officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with potted flowers and Florida palms. Miss Emma Brown, of Salisbury, first sang a solo. Following this Miss Elva Kelley played the wedding march (Mendelssohn); at the beginning of the march Mr. Powell, accompanied by his best man, Dr. Banner, of Mt. Airy, entered by the right aisle and Miss Douthit, the bride, with Mr. Douthit, her brother, who gave her away, entered the left aisle. These were followed by Mr. Powell, of Mount Airy, sister of the groom; Mr. Albert Brock, of Winston, and Miss Pearl Douthit, sister of the bride, and Mr. W. L. Sanford, of Mocksville, and Miss Isabell Brown, of Salisbury. Messrs. Henry Kelley and Thos. Bailey, of Mocksville, were ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Metehodist minister, Rev. W. L. Sherrill. Mr. and Mrs. Powell leave today for the "Land of Flowers." Their home will be Mount Airy."

Marriage in the Country.

Miss Maud Hodgin and Mr. Adger Kirkman were married Wednesday night at the residence of the bride's father, near Centre, this county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Poe, Methodist minister stationed on the Pleasant Garden circuit. After the wedding a sumptuous supper was served the guests. Yesterday at the home of the groom's father, Mr. Dan Kirkman, near Moriah, what is known as an "Infair" was given the newly wedded couple and their friends.

Mr. Ab Erwin and several other friends attended both the marriage and the infair.

At Centenary Last Evening.

Mrs. G. M. Jobson, of Richmond, va., made avery interesting talk on Y. W. C. T. U. work at Centenary church last evening. She told of the flower mission, jail work and other branches of the temperance work. Several new members were added to the South Greensboro Union. Mrs. Jobson has been making a tour of the State, holding institutes and doing other temperance work. Her efforts have been greatly blessed and she has added almost 250 workers to the cause.

"Noblest Roman of Them All."

A fine oil painting—the portrait of Dr. Eli W. Caruthers—can now be seen in the show window of the Odell Hardware Co. It is the excellent work of David L. Clark, artist to the Guilford Battle Ground Company, just completed under order and is the property of the Company.

THE WRONG MAN.

The Victim of a Case of Mistaken Identity—Tanks Up and Runs Into Vehicles on the Roadside.

Yesterday afternoon a man from near Millboro named Van Ruth and answering to the description of a man wanted in Siler City, was arrested by two of the police force. Upon close examination he proved to be not the man wanted and was released. When arrested he had been imbibing rather freely, but as soon as he was released from custody he at once proceeded to tank himself to his full capacity. Having successfully accomplished this feat he climbed into his buggy and a kind friend turned his mule in the direction of home and started them off. The man was too drunk to hold the lines and they trailed in the road. In front of Dr. Beall's residence on Asheboro street Miss Ross, daughter of Mr. Foster Ross, and several friends were sitting. Seeing the approaching mule and buggy and the condition of the man, they drove to one side of the road, but the wheels of the drunken man's buggy caught their, almost overturning the buggy and frightening their horse. Fortunately nothing was damaged except one wheel which was severely wrenched, and which caused the young ladies to walk back to their homes.

The mule also became frightened at the contact of the buggies and when last seen was in the middle of the road, travelling at his best gait, towards home.

A man in such a condition and driving alone is a menace to every one he comes in contact with and especially ladies riding without male escort.

Mr. A. G. Brooks' Condition Unchanged.

Mr. Frank Brooks left this afternoon for Ore Hill and from there will drive across country to Putnam, and will remain with his brother, Mr. A. G. Brooks, an account of whose serious illness appeared in yesterday's Telegram, until a decided change in his condition, one way or the other, occurs.

Mr. James Love, of Putnam, arrived last night and will have charge of the buisness at the office of the Brooks Lumber Company until Mr. Brooks' return.

A few minutes before leaving Mr. Brooks received a telegram stating that his brothers condition was about the same as yesterday.

Library Plan Meeting Favor.

Prof. G. A. Grimsley tells The Telegram that the library movement is meeting with great favor and that the present indications are that it will be an assured fact and that it will be a great success. The canvassing for subscriptions is progressing nicely. Every body is heartily in favor of it. Many are responding liberally. The canvassers have been out only two afternoons and have raised over $1,000. The business men are taking right hold of it. They readily see what it will mean in the city's progress. All will be asked to contribute and it is hoped they will do so as liberally as possible. If they will we can have a library that will be a credit to the city.

Changed Round a Bit.

The Greensboro correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says that a peculiar situation of affairs developed yesterday during the trial of a distiller and his storekeeper and guager. They were indicted six years ago, while Mr. R. B. Glenn was district attorney and the late Judge Dick was on the bench. The distiller employed the present district attorney to defend him, while the store keeper retained Judge Boyd. When the case came up yesterday the defendants were represented by Mr. Glenn, while the distiller's former attorney had charge of the prosecution and the other attorney for the defense was on the bench.

THE DISTURBER AT HIGH POINT

AUSTIN. THE DRUNKEN PREACHER AND AGITATOR, THERE.

He is Busily Explaining Why He Has Been Set Down Upon.—To Make Pulpit Sets.

High Point, April 11.—At the home of the bride on Rankin street last night Mr. Will L. Smith and Miss Jessie Rankin were united in marriage. The forthcoming marriage was kept rather quiet and the announcement was received with surprise by a number of people. Only the immediate family and a few special friends were present. Rev. A. S. Caldwell, pastor Presbyterian church was the officiating minister. Mr. Smith owns a large farm near here, also a town residence. It is not known which of the two places they will chose as their home .Their friends wish them them all the joy married life affords.

J. F. Austin, State organizer of the Federation of Labor attended the meeting of that organization here this week and while present issued a card denying his reported swindle from local unions. Members of the Salisbury unions also expressed confidence in his honor and integrity and denounced Mr. Austin's persecutors. Following was a foot note by Mr. Austin which in part reads as follows: "At an early date I shall publish evidence against my pursuers that will be startling and will show their motives * * *one of them is a dirty * * * This politician denounced Governor Aycock before a local union calling him a liar, etc." It will be remembered that the said Austin some time ago brought suit agaist the Mill News of Charlotte, for libel and at the trial recently in Randleman lost his suit.

Pulpit sets of every description will in the future be manufactured by Mr. P. V. Kirkman, of the High Point Upholstering Company. Mr. Kirkman has just perfected arrangements to make this class of goods. The samples he has on the market are beauties.

Married at Hotel Guilford.

A party from Reidsveille composed of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Montgomery, Miss Florence D. Pannill, Miss Mary E. Withers, Mr. Dudley Withers, Mr. S. A. Hubbard, Mr. John D. Pannill, and Mr. W. L. Pannill, came to this city last night and stopped at the Guilford. Their mission here was to witness the ceremony that made two of their number, Miss Mary E. Withers, and Mr. Jno. D. Pannill, man and wife. The wedding took place in the parlors of the Guilford in the presence of their friends, solemnized by Rev. W. C. Newton, pastor of the West Washington Street Baptist church. After the ceremony the party, with the exception of the bride and groom, after a short visit to the Normal College, returned to Reidsville. Mr. and Mrs. Pannill remained in the city until this morning when they left on the morning train for the eastern part of the State. The couple came to Greensboro to escape the formalities attendant upon a wedding at home.

Mr. Pannill is assistant postmaster at Reidsville.

Lost Four Cows.

Mr. D. R. Huffines own a nice farm about ten miles east of the city and has on it a herd of fine cows. In the past few days several of his cows have been attacked with what is known as Texas fever, and four of the bovines have already died. Three more were taken sick yesterday and are not expected to live. Mr. Huffines has several very fine milch cows and he fears that the disease will spread to them.

The animals received medical attention but nothing seemed to help them. One thing noticable in the disease is the fact that it causes the tongue of the cow to turn white.

STANTON'S JUST FROM GEORGIA

The good time that's coming is not far away;
The weariest winter is dreaming of May;
Out o the darkness the light o' dav—
The morning! the morning! the morning!

II.

What of the sorrows of all the dark years—
What of the lost hopes, and what of the fears?
After the grief and the rain o' the tears
The morning! the morning! the morning!

III.

Fast past the storm clouds, unveiling the bright;
The ships hear the home-bells—the harbor's insight;
And we dream, and we drift evermore to the light—
The morning! the morning! the morning!

DIG THE BAIT!

A Georgia singer rhymes the delightful season as follows:

"Johnnie, quit yer swingin' on the rosy garden gate;
Jonnie, dig the bait, boy—Johnnie, dig the bait!
The blossoms—they they are backward, an' the fishin' season's late;
But Johnnie, dig the bait, boy—Johnnie, dig the bait!"

All of which goes to show that at leas t the fish must be nibbling.

A SONG OF IT.

What is spring in Georgia?
Red the roses throng,
Bees in all the blossoms—
Sunshine and song!
Rivers ripple music,
Sweeping swift along;
Velvet, violet valleys—
Sunshine and song!

THE THOUGHT OF HER.

I

The April ways
Are bright with blossoms, and the skies are blue;
There is a music in the world's glad days,
But evermore there comes the thought of you.

II.

The tender thought that brings
All grief—all glory in these hastening years.
The thought that tortures and the thought that clings,
With memories of melody and tears.

III.

The blooms are in the rain
And sunlight of the world: the heaven above
Hath but the shadow of a cloud to stain
A world of lilies and a world of love.

IV.

And yet, how weary all!—
For these sad, pleading, outstretched hands of mine
Should weave of all earth's flowers a coronal
To deck that beautiful, dear brow of thine.

V.

Like shadows still we pass—
Like light that flickers on a sea-swept stream.
And all Love's latest language is—"Alas,
That life and love are dreams with in a dream!"

FRIDAY, APRIL 12.

A NEW KIND OF TRUST.

The "trust question" is the ever present one in America now, and is ever rising in one shape or another. Only a few days ago there was a statement made that all the principal railroads of the country were to be controlled by one grand head organization. This announcement was little more that might have been expecteo at any time, for if the present plan fails it is but a question of a short while till a similar one will succeed.

But that is not the most significant thing that has occurred relating to trust formation, for the principle as applied to hugh railroad or other corporations, has been so frequently practiced that we have all become accustomed to it and being more or less familiar with it, are giving less and less notice of its new manifestations. Not so however with the announcement last week that a movement was on foot, headed by the large banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., to consolidate under one management some of the large retail stores of New York. This is a wholly new manifestation of the trust principle and is no doubt destined to cut an important figure in the business life of the country. The trusts are multiplying day by day and almost hourly. They are getting nearer and nearer the people. Are they, in thus approaching us, becoming less hideous? And will we in the long run continue to regard them as enemies or decide to accept them as friends?

The alleged movement to make General Nelson A. Miles a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president, the news of which comes from Washington today, is the silliest thing that April, the month of fools, has yet brought fourth. To all intents and purposes there is little Democratic party now outsidethe South, and in all the South there is not a school beat that Miles could carry.

The Filipino junta in London are greatly wrought up by a report which has reached them from some source to the effect that General MacArthur is preparing to torture Aguinaldo to force him to take the oath of allegiance. They will appeal to the European courts to prevent the barbarity. The long distance patriot is usually rara avis.

Prof. Grimsley's report that the library movement is meeting much favor, is very gratifying. If an effort for a free public library should not meet the hearty support of our people it would be a matter of surprise to the people of the State.

The Federal court now in session here will take in in the neighborhood of $10,000 in fines and costs paid. This may be said to be a pretty good haul for the government from moonshining.

Two Gods.

I.

A boy was born, mid little things,
Between a little world and sky—
And dreamed not of the cosmic rings
Round which the circling planets fly.
He lived in little works and thoughts,
Where little ventures grow and plod,
And paced and ploughed his little plots
And prayed unto his little God.
But as the mighty system grew,
His faith grew faint with many scars,
The Cosmos widened in his view--
But God was lost among the stars.

II.

Another boy in lowly days,
As he, to little things was born,
But gathered lore in woodland ways,
And from the glory of the morn.
As wider skies broke on his view,
God greatened in his growing mind,
Each year he dreamed his God anew,
And left his older God behind,
He saw the boundless scheme dilate,
In star and blossom sky and clod;
And as the universe grew great,
He dreamed for it a greater God.

A Sure Cure.

A New York man cured himself of the grippe by merely fasting. This treatment, however, says the Chicago Tribune, if continued long enough, will put a stop to any disease.

Effect of Criticism.

We hope the publishers of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" are prepared, says the Chicago Times-Herald, to supply the increased demands that will now be made for the book.

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of childbirth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."

CAUGHT A DREADFUL COLD.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits. .For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mrs. William Savory, of Warrington, England. THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM. QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlains's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parson & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommend it so highly that I htought ,aeldihwititehoMrdtriz that I bought a bottle. I was soon relived of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." or sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

MOONSHINER TO BE AN ACTOR.

Old Billy Price Engaged to Give Realistic Performance in Melodrama.

Old Billy Pritts, for years king of the moonshine gang operating in Somerset and Fayette counties, Pennsylvania, is the latest star to flash upon the histrionic firmament. After living for 40 years as an outlaw with a price on his head, Pritts was run down and captured by revenue officers last August. Aided by his two sons, he stood siege for nearly a day and was wounded in the leg before he surrendered, says a southern exchange.

Pritts was taken to Uniontown, where he was held for trial in the United States district court. His patriarchal appearance so impressed several of the town's business men that they went on his bail bond. He was at Uniontown when he first saw a play. He was greatly impressed. The production was one of the melodramatic type and showed life in the wilds of the Tennessee mountains. A battle with moonshiners was one of the features of the play.

It was at the height of the battle that Pritts laid the foundation for his stage career. The play-acting moonshiners were being slowly overwhelmed by the revenue officers when Pritts, with the experience of an old campaigner, saw an opening. Leaping from his seat he yelled:

"Look out, boys! They're comin' up behind! Give it to 'em back through the brush!"

Pritts made the hit of the evening. A Pittsburgh theatrical man who was in the audience hunted up the old moonshiner after the performance and made him an offer. He explained the nature of stage work, and offered him more money each week than the old man had ever seen in a bunch in his life. Pritts was delighted.

"I guess," he said, sorrowfully, "I can't ever go back to my 'stillin' agin, an' I reckon the money will come in handy. What'll I have to do?"

"Do?" responded the theatrical man, "why, just what you've always been doing. You'll be my leading man. I'll get up a play and have you make whisky on the stage. There'll be a battle with revenue officers, and you'll save the heroine's life and be pardoned and live happy ever after."

"But," said Billy, with a grin, "I don't think I'll be pardoned. They caught me dead and I guess I'm in for it."

"Oh, but the play will come after," said the theatrical man. "After you've served your time, you know."

"I can't understand," Billy went on. "They tell me it is agin the law to make whisky. That's what I'm arrested for. Wouldn't it be agin the law to make it on the stage as well as any other place? Then if I'm to fight the officers every night I guess I'd be in jail for the rest of my natural."

After the make-believe features of the business were explained Britts agreed to sign a contract.

"I've got a still up in the mountain that is just the thing," he said. "Good for 60 gallon any day. I'll have 'er brought down so you can look at 'er."

Thus the new theatrical star was discovered. Pritts will be put on the stage as soon as he is out of his present troubles.

HOW TO GAIN FLESH

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of Scott's emulsion. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking Scott's Emulsion.

You will find it just as useful in summer as in winter, and if you are thriving upon it don't stop because the weather is warm.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample its agreeable taste will surprise you.

ELECTION EPISODES.

Amusing Incidents of the Recent Political Contests in England.

At a place called Beccles, during the recent elections, says Youth's Companion, a voter was observed going to the polls in a donkey-cart. The donkey was profusely decorated with the radical colors, while the voter wore a tory rosette. Challenged as to this seeming inconsistency, he cheerily replied:

"Oh, I'm going to vote for F——, the conservative candidate; my donkey's for S—— (the radical); but then, he's an ass."

Kingston-on-Thames was contested by Mr. Skewes-Cox in the conservative interest. His opponent was a Mr. Burt. The radical agent placarded the town with:

"Ex-Skewes-Cox and vote for Burt."

Nevertheless, in spite of this artful invitation the tory nominee was returned with a very respectable majority.

The member returned for South Oxfordshire, Mr. Hodge, was a local man, and he was opposed by Mr. Samuels in the radical interest. The fact of Mr. Hodge's residence in the division naturally gave him an advantage, and this was thought to be discounted by the radicals in the following way. Thousands of placards were distributed, bearing the words:

"Mr. Samuels if elected will live here."

Unhappily the bill-posters employed by Mr. Samuels' agent were destitute of a sense of humor, or else they were secretly of conservative proclivities, for a great many of the announcements found their way to the walls of pigsties and ramshackle buildings.

To Study a London Fog.

Rev. J. M. Bacon, F. R. S., proposes to make a balloon ascent during one of the thick, impenetrable fogs which visit London during the winter months. He proposes to ascend to the higher limits of the fog and to explore scientifically its constitution. He also proposes to discharge small cartridges of gun cotton at great heights, in order to ascertain whether the concussion will dislodge or disperse the fog in any way. He has carried out several experiments with similar cartridges for acoustical purposes at varying altitudes.—Science.

Not Like Lightning.

"Jimmy," exclaimed the first boy, "teacher jumped on you pretty quick. Yanked you up and walloped you like lightning, didn't he?"

"No," replied the other boy, ruefully, "not like lightning. He hit me too often in the same place."—Family Herald.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE,

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

It matters not what other treatments doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. THE NON-INDIGENT.

A Special Committee Meets at Morganton to Formulate rules Relating Thereto.

Special to Charlotte Observer.

Morganton, April 11.—The special committe of the board of directors of the State Hospial to consider questions relating to the non-indigent insane met at the Hospital today, all the members present, viz: Messrs. R. N. Page, C. H. Armfield and J. P. Caldwell. Superintendent Murphy sat with the committee.

A preamble and resolutions were adopted reciting that whereas an act of the Legislature forbids the directors to receive or retain no-indigent patients exeept upon the payment of such sum as is necessary to meet the expense of maintenance, an dthe board is forbidden by law to employ attorneys or others to secure the information necessary to put the new law into effect,thereforethe superintendent is requested to forward to the attorney general a list of the names of all the patients now in this institution, with the request that he obtain for the use of the board information as to the ability of said patients and those legally liable for their support to pay the expenses of their maintenance.

The committee recommended that the charge for the non-indigent insane befixed at the per capita cost allowed by the State (which for this year is $133)' and that they shall have the same fare and treatment as indigent patients, but if extras are demanded $12.50 additional per month shall be paid. If the friends of indigent patients desire to pay for these extras for them they shall have them at the same charge—$12.50.

It was recommended that in case a patient is only partly indigent and is able to pay a portion of the cost of maintenance, the executive committee of this board shall fix the amount to be paid, in accordance with the facts of the case and the ability to pay.

It was recommended further that in the event those legally responsible for the maintenance of a non-indigent patient shall fail and refuse to pay the charges made and the same cannot be collected by legal process, such patient be discharged from the hospital.

The above recommendations represent the sense of the committee. They are tentative and are subject to change after a possible conference on this subject with a similar committee from the State Hospital at Raleigh.

Under the construction of the new law by the committee in connection with facts furnished by the superintendent, itis ascertained that there are in this institution not less than five and perhaps not more than ten patients who are subject to charge for maintenance.

The rummage sale is an assured success, so will be opened spring and fall here. After being of mutual benefit to the people and the church. The Bazar is postponed until late and all articles sent in or promised or in preparation will be reserved for that in connection with our popular restaurant.
